The used car mart advertises lots of used BMW's, London . There are literally hundreds of second hand cars to look at, both right hand drive and left hand drive. It is becoming increasingly popular for car buyers in Ireland and Cyprus to search on Auto Trader for their next second hand car here in the UK. Buyers can save hundreds of pounds by buying the car in the UK and exporting it. Yes, there are the exchange rate implications, export tax and potentially VAT to consider but with the help of the dealer, these can easily be sorted. Big Motoring World in Kent recently sold a BMW 645 to a customer who came over from Germany as he could not buy the equivalent specification car in the manufacturer's homeland.
